Jenny's love and knowledge of the Bible allow her to speak on any requested topic but a sample of her favorites include:

Call Me: In a facebook generation, we are losing the special touch of a human voice and the time it takes for a hand written note. Jenny shares her life story along with the art of connection. (Jeremiah 33:3)

If the Shoe Fits: Every woman loves shoes and this is the perfect talk for your ladies using the analogy of shoes to "Walking in the Spirit" (Ephesians 1:3)

Ropin' in Your Relationships: Jenny's Texas upbringing and love of Westerns shines through in this session. By the time this session is over, y'all will have been to the rodeo and back and given the tools to establish great relationships.

Taste and See...Come to the Table: With Jenny's latest venture of an actual cooking show from her own kitchen, she will share practical, biblical information along with domestic advice in a way that only Jenny can share. And you thought EVOO only stood for Extra Virgin Olive Oil!
